

President's Message

We all know that Entertainment and Education are the two 'E's that run parallel to each other but International Chamber of Media and Entertainment Industry (ICMEI) has expertly gelled them into one at Marwah Studio.

Asian Academy of Film & Television is the first professional Media School in North India contributing tremendously in imparting media education all around the world. It is not only the training ground to many media professionals but also a shooting floor for many creative and brilliant projects. This studio is churning out thousands of talented people hailing from various parts of the world and is inspiring in million ways.

To provide best kind of exposure, we make it a point to organize various workshops and interactions of various actors from time to time and hence, have been inviting the most experienced and knowledgeable stalwarts of the industry.

We believe that the best kind of learning is that is beyond those four walls and being pioneers in media education, our intent is to provide best quality education to every student.
